Sub: Delhi Ladli Scheme – Regarding Process for Claiming the Maturity Amount.

Sir/Madam,

As per Rule 7(5) of Delhi Ladli Scheme, on maturity of the long term fixed deposit i.e. on attaining the age of 18 years and having passed Class-X as a regular student or having taken admission in Class-XII, the accumulated amount will be paid to the girl child through an account payee check in her name.

2. Girls who had registered under Ladli Scheme (on taking admission in Class-XII) in F.Y. 2008-09 have/will become eligible to claim their maturity amount in the current financial year.

3. In this regard, the maturity claim process has been worked out with SBI Life Insurance Co. Ltd. (SBIL). A copy of the process flow is enclosed herewith for your kind reference. A format of the letter (in Hindi) to be addressed to the applicant, alongwith the documents required to open zero balance account, is also enclosed.

It is accordingly requested to process the maturity claims of the eligible girls.

This issues with the prior approval of Secretary (SW & WCD).

Yours faithfully,

Sd/-
(Geetika Sharma)
Dy. Director (Ladli Scheme)
